Manager, Audit

szychlinski@seldenfox.com

Kim is an audit manager at Selden Fox. She is committed to understanding each of her clients' operations and developing professional relationships through effective communication. As an audit manager, Kim takes responsibility for the audit planning and fieldwork for a variety of client audit engagements including charitable organizations, schools, private foundations, financial institutions, and governments. More specifically, she has performed audits of multiple nonprofits who have received upwards of $250 million in federal awards. As a result, she is extremely knowledgeable and familiar with Single Audits and maintains the necessary Yellow Book CPE required to work on such engagements. In addition, Kim has experience in 990 tax preparation, agreed upon procedures, and consulting procedures.

Kim is a member of the AICPA and Illinois CPA Society. She joined Selden Fox in 2013 after earning her bachelor's degree in accounting and business administration from Augustana College (Rock Island, IL). She resides in Genoa, Illinois with her husband and two children.
